

And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Start by asking your Home Group to share any further reflections on the sermon.

What stood out to you?

Did you learn anything new that you didn't know before? Do you have any questions?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- What personally spurs you on to good deeds and loving others?
- What could be some reasons for someone not wanting to speak into the lives of others by 'considering' and 'encouraging' them?
- What was the last thing you did to encourage someone?
- Has there ever been a time in your life when someone else's encouragement had a significant impact on your faith?
- Verse 25 says "not give up meeting together." What are the benefits of meeting together as Christians that we cannot get on our own?
- What personally draws you to a body of believers? What turns you away?
- What typically tempts you to avoid "meeting together?"
- Why do you think Jesus looks to meet certain needs only through His body, the church?

APPLICATION

Reflect on Hebrews 10:24-25. How will you apply these verses this week?

Share your application with the group. Commit to checking in with one another during the week about this process.

SPIRITUAL PRACTICE

Take some time to pray for each other. Take some time to listen first. Ask Spirit to share his heart for these requests. Open up the time for people to pray the things out loud that Spirit has prompted.
