

JESUS IS LOOKING FOR LISTENERS

Read Mark 4:1-20; Isaiah 6:8-10; Ezekiel 33:32

Jesus told his disciples that he teaches in parables in order to reveal the condition of hearts – to reveal who is listening. The obscure, veiled nature of his teachings draw the listener closer, but pushes the hard hearted further away.

- When is the last time you failed to listen to someone? Why weren't you listening?
- When was the last time you were confused by God? Either by life circumstance or in Scripture?
- What life circumstances can lead to the bad soil types? Have you experienced any of these circumstances recently?
- What kind of soil are you?
- What does Jesus' parable tell us about the Sower?

Isaiah 6, Ezekiel 20:49, Ezekiel 33:32

The purpose of the obscure in the Bible, or the "mysterious" work of God in our lives is to draw us closer. To encourage us to Lean In, Listen & Ask Questions.

- How do you sense God calling you to Lean In to Him in this season?
 - What has been your practice of Listening to God?
 - What Questions are you currently asking God?
- Why did Jesus teach in Parables?
 - If he didn't explain the parable, would you have understood it?
 - Why is this parable critical to understanding the other parables?
